1. Introduction

The Shadowverse Online Championship 2025 November ("the Tournament") is organized and operated by Cygames, Inc. ("the Company") and the Shadowverse Online Championship Management Team ("the Management Team").

These Tournament Rules ("the Rules"), along with related notices and guidelines, have been established as follows.

The Management Team shall operate and manage the Tournament in accordance with the Rules. In the event of any circumstances not covered by the Rules, or if applying the Rules would result in significantly unfair outcomes, the Management Team reserves the right to make final decisions at its discretion.

All dates and times stated in the Rules are in Japan Standard Time (JST).

2. Eligibility

Participation and registration in the Tournament are available through the smartphone application "Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond Tournament Navigator" ("Tournament Navigator"). Please note that residents outside the supported regions are not eligible to participate in the Tournament.

To participate in the Tournament, players must meet the following eligibility requirements.

A. For Residents of Japan

- (1) The player must agree to these Rules.
- (2) The player must complete registration through the Tournament Navigator, which is linked to Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond game account, and must not unlink the game account before receiving any tournament rewards.
*If the link is removed before reward distribution, rewards may not be delivered correctly.
- (3) The player must be able to respond to messages from the Management Team via the voice chat application Discord.
- (4) The player must be at least 13 years old as of the tournament date, and meet the following conditions based on their age:
 - 18 years old and above: Must be able to submit a valid, government-issued ID with date of birth at the time of registration.
 - 13 to 17 years old: Must submit a Parental Consent Form (available on the official tournament website), signed and stamped by a legal guardian.
*Handwritten signatures or pre-printed stamps (e.g., "Shachihata" type) are not accepted.
*If the player wins a cash prize, they must submit personal bank account information (in the player's own name) by the specified deadline following notification from the Management Team.

- (5) If requested by the Management Team, the player must be able to present a valid, government-issued photo ID showing their date of birth and with a current expiration date.
*For the list of acceptable ID types, please refer to "Appendix A" in Section 19.
- (6) The player must be available to participate on all of the following dates:
 - Day 1 Preliminary: Either Saturday, November 8, 2025 or Sunday, November 9, 2025
 - Day 2 Preliminary + Finals: Sunday, November 16, 2025
- (7) On the day of the Tournament, the player must complete check-in within the time period designated by the Management Team.
- (8) The player must be able to communicate smoothly in Japanese with the Management Team and other participants.
- (9) The player must understand and comply with both these Rules and any separately specified tournament operation procedures.
- (10) The player must not have been engaged, within the six months prior to registration, in any form of work—including regular employment, part-time work, or ongoing contract work—for Cygames, Inc., CyberZ, Inc., or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates.
- (11) The player must not have been a recipient of advance information regarding the Infinity Evolved card set from Cygames, Inc. for purposes such as publication or writing. However, this does not apply if the provided information was made publicly available within 168 hours of disclosure.
- (12) The player must not be affiliated with the Management Team.
- (13) The player must not have been subject to disqualification or suspension from participating in any official tournaments related to Shadowverse Evolve, Shadowverse, or Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond.
- (14) The player must not be involved in operating content aggregation or reprint websites, and must not be employed by or affiliated with companies involved in real-money trading (RMT).
- (15) The player, as well as their relatives, must not be members of antisocial forces (including but not limited to organized crime groups, organized crime group members, associate members, companies affiliated with organized crime groups, corporate extortionists, social or political racketeers, or groups engaging in criminal activities under the guise of social or political movements), nor have any relationships with such groups.

B. For Residents Outside Japan

- (1) The player must agree to these Rules.
- (2) The player must complete registration through the Tournament Navigator, which is linked to Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond game account, and must not unlink the game account before receiving any tournament rewards.
*If the link is removed before reward distribution, rewards may not be delivered correctly.
- (3) The player must be able to respond to messages from the Management Team via the voice chat application Discord.
- (4) The player must be at least 20 years old as of the tournament date.

- (5) The player must be able to present their passport if requested by the Management Team.
- (6) The player must be available to participate on all of the following dates:
 - Day 1 Preliminary: Either Saturday, November 8, 2025 or Sunday, November 9, 2025
 - Day 2 Preliminary + Finals: Sunday, November 16, 2025
- (7) On the day of the Tournament, the player must complete check-in within the time period designated by the Management Team.
- (8) The player must be able to communicate smoothly in Japanese or English with the Management Team and other participants.
- (9) The player must understand and comply with both these Rules and any separately specified tournament operation procedures.
- (10) The player must not have been engaged, within the six months prior to registration, in any form of work—including regular employment, part-time work, or ongoing contract work—for Cygames, Inc., CyberZ, Inc., or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates.
- (11) The player must not have been a recipient of advance information regarding the Infinity Evolved card set from Cygames, Inc. for purposes such as publication or writing. However, this does not apply if the provided information was made publicly available within 168 hours of disclosure.
- (12) The player must not be affiliated with the Management Team.
- (13) The player must not have been subject to disqualification or suspension from participating in any official tournaments related to Shadowverse Evolve, Shadowverse, or Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond.
- (14) The player must not be involved in operating content aggregation or reprint websites, and must not be employed by or affiliated with companies involved in real-money trading (RMT).
- (15) The player, as well as their relatives, must not be members of antisocial forces (including but not limited to organized crime groups, organized crime group members, associate members, companies affiliated with organized crime groups, corporate extortionists, social or political racketeers, or groups engaging in criminal activities under the guise of social or political movements), nor have any relationships with such groups.

3. Agreement Regarding Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025

This Tournament is a related event of the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025. To participate, the player must agree to all of the following terms:

- (1) The player must be able to attend the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025, which will be held in Japan, as well as any associated rehearsals or related activities.
- (2) The player must be able to receive and respond to communications from the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025 Management Team during the lead-up to the event.
- (3) If the player qualifies for participation in the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025, they must attend photo and video shooting sessions organized by the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025 Management Team. (The dates and locations of these sessions will be determined by the Management Team in consultation with each qualified player.)

- (4) The player must agree to provide personal information such as their full name, age, and address to the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025 Management Team, and consent to being photographed or interviewed by the Management Team or media outlets.
- (5) The player must acknowledge and consent that their portrait, in-game name, age, self-introduction, and any still photos or videos taken under clause (3) may be used by Cygames, Inc. and the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025 Management Team on official websites, promotional materials, press releases, and media content related to the tournament—not only during this fiscal year but in subsequent years as well. Furthermore, the player agrees to the commercial use of such materials in print, video, and other informational media produced by Cygames and the Management Team, and waives any portrait rights, publicity rights, or related claims regarding such use.
- (6) If the player is eliminated on Day 1 of the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025, they are required to participate in the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025 Last Chance Qualifier.
- (7) If the player is under 18 years of age as of the date of the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025, they must obtain the consent of their legal guardian for all items above (1) through (6). In addition, explicit guardian consent is required for the commercial use of the minor participant's portrait, name, and likeness. This consent must be submitted in writing using a designated format specified separately.

4. Tournament Structure

The Tournament consists of three stages: Preliminary Day 1, Preliminary Day 2, and the Finals. Preliminary Day 1 will be conducted in Best of 1 (2 Decks) in a 7-round Swiss format. Players with 6 wins or more will earn the participation of Preliminary Day 2.

Preliminary Day 2 will be conducted in Best of 1 (2 Decks) in a 7-round Swiss format. Players with 6 wins or more will earn the participation of Finals.

Finals will be conducted in Best of 3 in a 5-round single elimination format. Players may potentially get a bye for the first round depending on the Preliminary Day 2 score.

A "match" shall refer to a collection of battles that are played to determine the outcome of a single round of a tournament.

4.1 Tournament Registration

- (1) Registration must be completed via the smartphone application the Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond Tournament Navigator.
- (2) Before registering, players must ensure that they meet the eligibility requirements outlined in 2. Eligibility.
- (3) The Tournament is free to enter for any individual who meets the eligibility criteria described in 2. Eligibility.
 - (a) At the time of registration, players must enter a Discord ID as specified by the Management Team.

The submitted Discord ID will be used for communication with participants and for announcing updates during the Tournament.

- (b) The Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond User ID will be used for registering in the in-game Tournament Mode, and also for distributing in-game items for rewards. (A Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond User ID can be obtained by downloading the game and creating an account.)
 - (c) After completing registration, participants must not change their in-game display name until the Tournament has concluded, unless specifically requested to do so by the Management Team.
 - (d) The Management Team reserves the right to request that a participant change their in-game name, and participants must comply with such requests.
 - (e) The Discord ID obtained during registration will be used solely for the purposes outlined in these Rules and will be handled appropriately in accordance with our Privacy Policy (<https://shadowverse-wb.com/en/privacy/>).
- (4) This Tournament will be conducted using the Tournament Mode within Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond, and therefore, differences in players' card collections will not affect gameplay.
- (5) If the number of registrants exceeds the maximum capacity, participants will be selected through a fair lottery conducted by the Management Team.
- (6) Lottery results will fall into one of the following categories:
- Confirmed Selection (Confirmed Participant)
 - Waitlist Selection (Waitlist Participant)
 - Not Selected
- Players selected as Confirmed Participants must complete check-in at the date and time specified by the Management Team to participate.
- (7) Players selected as Waitlist Participants may participate in the Tournament up to the number of Confirmed Participants who fail to check in, provided they complete check-in at the specified date and time.
- (8) The final list of participants from among the Waitlist Participants will be determined through an additional lottery conducted by the Management Team on the day of the Tournament. Players who are not selected will not be eligible to participate.

4.2 Match Mode

All matches in this Tournament will be conducted in Standard.

4.3 Tournament Mode

- (1) Tournament Mode is a feature available free of charge to all participants in this Tournament.
- (2) In Tournament Mode, all participants will have access to cards that are eligible for use in the Standard format, excluding Premium Cards, Fully Animated Cards, Collaboration Cards, and Alternate-Art Cards.
- (3) Participants who have earned the qualification for Day 1 in the Tournament or in Day 2 must register the decks they intend to use during the Tournament within the designated period set by the Management Team, in the same manner as general participants.

4.4 Withdrawal

- (1) Participants may withdraw from the Tournament at any time. However, once a participant has withdrawn, they will forfeit their eligibility to continue participating in the Tournament from that point onward.
- (2) Prizes and rewards will be distributed based on a participant's final standing at the end of each day. Participants who withdraw will not be eligible to receive any prize or reward. However, this does not apply if the Management Team determines that the reason for withdrawal was due to unavoidable and unforeseeable circumstances.
- (3) Participants who advance to the Finals but choose to withdraw before the start of the Finals will receive the same prize and reward as those eliminated in Round 1 of the Finals.

5. Preliminary Day 1

5.1 Match Format

- (1) Only the two decks registered in the Tournament Mode may be used in matches.
- (2) The two registered decks must be in different classes.
- (3) Matches will be conducted in a Best of 1 (2 Decks) format, consisting of a maximum of one battle. The player who wins that single battle is declared the winner of the match.
- (4) Each participant selects one deck from their two registered decks to start the battle.
- (5) The order of play (first or second) in each battle is determined at random.

5.2 Tournament Format

- (1) Participants will be divided into multiple groups and will compete in a 7-round Swiss format. The number of rounds may be adjusted at the discretion of the Management Team.
- (2) In a Swiss format, match results are recorded at the end of each round, and participants are paired in the next round against others with similar records.
- (3) After 7 rounds, participants with a score of 6 wins and 1 loss or better will earn the right to participate in Preliminary Day 2, scheduled for Sunday, November 16, 2025. If the number of rounds is adjusted, this condition may change. In such a case, the Management Team will notify all participants of the updated qualification criteria prior to the start of Round 1 on Day 1.
- (4) Depending on the total number of participants, byes may occur.

6. Preliminary Day 2

6.1 Match Format

- (1) Only the two decks registered in the Tournament Mode may be used in matches.
*Players will need to re-register their decks for Day 2 and Finals after Day 1.
- (2) Matches will be conducted in a Best of 1 (2 Decks) format, consisting of a maximum of one battle. The player who wins that single battle is declared the winner of the match.
- (3) Each participant selects one deck from their two registered decks to start the battle.
- (4) The order of play (first or second) in each battle is determined at random.

6.2 Tournament Format

- (1) Matches will be held in a 7-round Swiss format. The number of rounds may be adjusted at the discretion of the Management Team.
- (2) In a Swiss format, match results are recorded at the end of each round, and participants are paired in the next round against others with similar records.
- (3) After 7 rounds, participants with a score of 6 wins and 1 loss or better will earn the right to participate in the Finals, which will take place on the same day as Preliminary Day 2.
- (4) If multiple participants have the same number of match wins at the end of Preliminary Day 2, their rankings will be determined based on the average match win rate of their opponents during Day 2.
If the average match win rate is also tied, rankings will then be determined by the average match win rate of their opponents' opponents.
If both criteria are still identical, rankings will be determined by lottery.
- (5) No scores from Preliminary Day 1—including match wins or opponents' win rates—will be carried over into Day 2.
- (6) Depending on the total number of participants, byes may occur.

7. Finals

7.1 Match Format

- (1) Only the two decks registered in the Tournament Mode may be used in matches.
*The same decks registered and used in Preliminary Day 2 will also be used in Finals.
- (2) Matches will be conducted in a Best of 3 format consisting of up to three battles, with the player who wins two battles first being declared the winner of the match.
- (3) In the first battle, each participant selects one deck from their two registered decks. For the second and any subsequent battles, a deck that has already won a battle in the same match may not be used again. (If a player registers "Forestcraft" and "Swordcraft" decks and wins the first battle using "Forestcraft", they may not use "Forestcraft" for the remainder of the match.)
- (4) The order of play (first or second) in each battle is determined at random.

- (5) To ensure fairness, matches in the Finals will be conducted under supervision, with gameplay shared using a method specified by the Management Team. The Management Team will monitor each match in real time.

7.2 Tournament Format

- (1) Matches will be held in a 5-round single elimination format.
- (2) Depending on the total number of participants, byes may occur.
- (3) In a single elimination format, a participant is eliminated from the tournament upon losing a single match.
- (4) Prizes and rewards will be awarded to participants based on their final standings, in accordance with the separately defined prize structure.

8. Tournament Operations

8.1 Deck Registration

- (1) All participants in the Tournament are required to register decks in the Tournament Mode.
*Participants who fail to complete deck registration properly will not be allowed to participate in the Tournament.
- (2) Details regarding the deck registration period and procedure will be announced to players by the Management Team.
- (3) There will be two deck registration happening in this Tournament; for Preliminary Day 1 and for Preliminary Day 2 + Finals. Participants can register different decks for these two deck registrations.
- (4) Deck registration for Preliminary Day 2 + Finals will start after all the matches for Preliminary Day 1 have concluded.
- (5) Preliminary Day 1 and Preliminary Day 2 will be a closed deck tournament. Decks for participants playing in the Finals will be revealed before the start of round 1.

8.2 Check-in

- (1) All participants must complete check-in via the Tournament Navigator at the date and time specified by the Management Team.
*Check the Player Guide on how to check-in to the Tournament.
- (2) Participants are not permitted to request changes to the tournament schedule or timetable.
- (3) In cases where changes are unavoidable due to operational reasons, the Management Team reserves the right to modify the schedule or timetable at its discretion.
- (4) Participants must use the same name between Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond and Discord display name.
- (5) Follow the Management Team's instructions to prepare for your match. If your opponent does not enter the Room ID in the Tournament Navigator or does not join the room after the match start announcement, report the issue via the designated Discord channel.

- (6) If a participant fails to respond within five minutes after a confirmation message is sent by the Management Team regarding the start of a match, the participant will be treated as having forfeited the match. If the participant does not provide a reason or contact the Management Team before the next match, they will be considered to have withdrawn from the Tournament.

8.3 Troubles During a Match

- (1) In the event that a match becomes unplayable due to a connection error, device malfunction, or similar issue, participants must immediately take a screenshot of the screen at the time of the issue and report the incident to the Management Team, including the screenshot. It is the participant's responsibility to report the issue promptly and request a ruling.
- (2) If any issue arises during a match, participants are responsible for promptly reporting the issue to the Management Team and requesting a ruling—regardless of the nature of the problem. Failure to do so may result in no ruling being made and could lead to penalties.
- (3) Upon receiving a report that a match cannot continue, the Management Team may conduct an investigation, which may include interviews with participants, review of screenshots and device screens, or examination of server logs. If the Management Team determines that the cause of the issue lies with a particular participant's device, it may issue a ruling of loss for that battle.
- (4) Participants are solely responsible for their own equipment and network environment during matches. In the case of unexpected issues or malfunctions, the Management Team will investigate and may issue penalties or rulings such as rematches.
- (5) Participants may not dispute any rulings made by the Management Team.
- (6) If a participant restarts the match or disbands the room without first reporting the issue to the Management Team, penalties may be applied.
- (7) In the event where gameplay cannot reasonably continue, or if abnormal in-game behavior occurs, the Management Team reserves the right to establish temporary rules, including restrictions on the use of specific cards.

8.4 Match Time Limit in Swiss Rounds

- (1) In the Swiss rounds, each round has a time limit of 35 minutes starting from the announcement of match pairings. If no result is reported by the end of the time limit, it will be considered the responsibility of the players involved, and both may be given a loss at the discretion of the Management Team.
- (2) Participants are required to respond promptly if contacted by the Management Team. Failure to reply may result in disqualification.
- (3) If a match is designated for livestream, the time restrictions outlined in this section will not apply. The match time may be extended until completion, following the instructions of the Management Team.

8.5 Match Result Reporting

- (1) After each match, participants are required to report the match result via the Tournament Navigator, following the procedure separately provided by the Management Team.
*For livestream matches, the Management Team will report the result on behalf of the participants.
- (2) The Management Team will proceed with tournament operation based on the reported match results.

- Permanent ban from Shadowverse Evolve, Shadowverse, and Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond tournaments

- Prohibition from participating in any events operated by Cygames, Inc.

The Management Team will determine the appropriate penalty based on the severity of the violation and its impact.

- (3) Repeated violations by the same individual will result in more severe penalties.
- (4) The Management Team reserves the right to publicly disclose any penalties issued, including on the official websites of Shadowverse Evolve and Shadowverse: Worlds Beyond.
- (5) Participants who are disqualified from the Tournament as a result of a penalty will forfeit any prize or reward as well as their right to participate in the Shadowverse World Grand Prix 2025.
- (6) If a participant's violation causes damage to the Management Team, Cygames, Inc., or any of the tournament's partner organizations, the participant may be subject to legal claims for compensation, including damages.

14. General

14.1 Disclaimer

- (1) In the event of unavoidable circumstances such as game server issues, natural disasters, or other force majeure situations, the Tournament may be postponed or suspended.
In such cases, the Management Team shall not be held responsible to any participants and will not accept any claims for reimbursement of costs or expenses incurred in connection with participation in the Tournament.
- (2) The Management Team shall not be liable for any disputes between participants, or for any damages or disadvantages resulting from violations of these Rules by participants, unless the issue arises directly from gross negligence or misconduct by the Management Team.

14.2 Handling of Personal Information

- (1) Cygames, Inc. will use the personal information provided by participants for the purposes of operating the Tournament and for advertising and promotional activities related to the Tournament, including but not limited to broadcasts of matches or the tournament venue and the introduction of top-ranking participants.
- (2) For the purposes stated above, the personal information provided may be published on Tournament-related websites, promotional materials, and videos, or shared with media outlets.
- (3) All personal information will be handled appropriately in accordance with our Privacy Policy (<https://shadowverse-wb.com/en/privacy/>).

15. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- (1) All matters related to the Tournament and these Rules shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Japan.
- (2) Any legal actions or disputes arising in connection with the Tournament or these Rules shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Tokyo District Court as the court of first instance.

16. Changes to the Rules

- (1) The Management Team reserves the right to amend these Rules at any time without prior notice.
- (2) Any changes to these Rules will be announced on the official Shadowverse Online Championship 2025 November website (<https://ocs.shadowverse-wb.com/>) in Japanese or in the dedicated channel of the tournament Discord server in English and shall take effect immediately upon publication.
